FROM THE PRESIDENT

As I have been elected as your new president of this wonderful Murchison shire I would like to take this opportunity to thank Simon for the outstanding leadership he has given to the shire for the last 15 years. As both a shire and community we have faced some real challenges and Simon's job was often not easy.

I am sure we would all agree that it was only fitting that Simon received life membership, this year, from WALGA for his dedication to local government.

I am looking forward to the next two years as president of the Murchison Shire as it will be both challenging and rewarding.

I believe that there is always more to learn and to do this we have to work as a team including our community, council, CEO and shire staff members both inside the office and out. I also believe we have to work outside of the square and work with other shires, particularly our neighbours, looking at what they are doing and how they are getting finance for their community projects.

I believe that we as a council are very aware that we represent the best interest of the community as a whole and I think it is wonderful that we consult the community as much as we do.

Do not hesitate in contacting me on any issues as I will do my very best to sort your issues out.

I wish everyone a merry Christmas and happy new year. Let's hope it is going to be a wet 2014.

SHIRE OF MURCHISON LOCAL PLANNING SCHEME/STRATEGY

As you may be aware, the Shire is in the process of preparing a 'local planning scheme' and a 'local planning strategy', to help guide land use planning over the next 10-20 years.

At present, the Shire doesn't actually have a strategy or scheme – nor has one been historically necessary. Through funding assistance from the State Government, consultants Urbis have been engaged to assist with the preparation of the strategy and scheme. These documents will seek to further build on the vision established for in the Shire's Strategic Community Plan' being 'Working together to preserve the unique character of the Shire, supporting diverse and sustainable lifestyle and economic opportunities'

In early 2014, we are hoping to have the consent of the Minister for Planning to proceed with a formal advertising period of not less than 90 days. During this period, it will be really important that everybody has their say on the future land use planning for the area, with key themes likely to include but not be limited to:

The challenges and opportunities associated with pastoral activities, to ensure that a suitable planning framework is in place.

The establishment of scientific research/radio telescopes in the areas

Planning for tourism activities

Planning to protect and celebrate heritage values

Ensuring that a suitable planning framework is in place for the Murchison settlement

Ensuring that a suitable planning framework is in place for the Pia Wadjarri community.

We'll be in touch in the new year to let you know when the documentation will be available for public comment and the opportunities there are for you to have you say on the future of the Shire.

If you have any questions at all about the strategy and scheme, please do not hesitate to get in touch with the Shire.

The Murchison Polocrosse Club would like to pay tribute to its patron, player and long time supporter, David Halleen, who passed away on the 30th October.

David grew up on Milly Milly Station, spent time in the Gascoyne and later managed Boolardy Station in the Murchison. He was renowned for his work ethic, his kindness, and his sense of humour.

A consummate horseman, he mustered with horses, raced them, played polocrosse on them, and endeavoured to make sure that all his children and grandchildren that showed interest rode good ones.

David played for Nicholson Ranges before that club merged with the Murchison Club. On his retirement, or relocation (as a workaholic never stops) to Geraldton, David made the A grade trophies for the Murchison Carnival. Wine glasses, clocks and table lamps were beautifully turned out of local Murchison wood.

The success and popularity of the Murchison Polocrosse Carnival is largely due to the Halleen family. The Murchison community and Polocrosse Club mourns the loss of a special person.

WD-40

'Water Displacement No.40' The product began from a search for rust preventative solvent and degreaser to protect missile parts.

WD-40 was created in 1953 by three technicians at the San Diego Rocket Chemical Company.

Its name comes from the project that was to find a 'water displacement' compound.

They were successful with the fortieth formulation, thus WD-40.

Ken East (one of the original founders) says there is nothing in WD-40 that would hurt you. It's the first thing that has ever cleaned the spotty shower screen. Works on glass or plastic

Here are some other uses:

- 1. Protects silver from tarnishing.
- 2. Removes road tar and grime from cars.
- 3. Cleans and lubricates guitar 20 strings.

MEDIA RELEASE

Lewis welcomes the Government's decision to strengthen mandatory sentencing laws

9 December 2013

Mark Lewis MLC has welcomed the announcement that Western Australia's tough mandatory sentencing laws will be further tightened to ensure adult offenders serve the full minimum jail sentence before being eligible for parole.

The new measures will apply to any adult convicted of either assaulting a public officer or dangerous driving causing death or serious injury while evading police.

The Liberal-National Government introduced mandatory jail for assaults against police, ambulance officers, transit guards, court security officers, prison officers and youth custodial officers.

The Attorney General will introduce the Sentencing Legislation Amendment Bill 2013 into State Parliament today to ensure the protection of public officers and to deter offenders from fleeing police.

"These changes will mean that these criminals will no longer be able to get parole eligibility half way through their sentence, if they are serving less than four years," Mr Lewis said.

"As a Government we are making these changes because it is the expectation of the community that mandatory means mandatory – if you are sentenced under the laws for assaulting a public officer for example, then you should spend a minimum of six months in jail, not out on parole."

For assaults against police and other public officers, offenders face a minimum jail term of 12 months for grievous bodily harm, nine months for bodily harm (in circumstances of aggravation) and six months for bodily harm.

There is a mandatory minimum 12-month jail term for a driver who attempts to escape a police pursuit and engages in dangerous driving which causes death or serious injury.

The Liberal-National Government had moved swiftly to amend the legislation following a case earlier this year where an offender convicted of assaulting a police officer was granted parole after four and a half months in jail.

It is important that these laws function as intended, that is, to discourage violent attacks on public officers and therefore provide enhanced protection to those who put themselves in harm's way in order to serve to WA community.

It is with great pleasure that we welcome Geoff and Debbie Gard to our community.

They are the new Roadhouse proprietors and come to the Murchison from Leeman on the coast.

On Sunday the 24th November Geoff and Debbie had a great get together at the roadhouse to meet some of the residents of the Murchison.

They have been in the retail business for some years having ran the Post Office in Woodanilling in the Great Southern for 7 years and the Highway Store in Coorow for 3 years.

I learnt something from Debbie today - Woodanilling Shire is the smallest shire in Australia.

They have done their fair share of traveling as well and have been around Australia eight times, so they have a fair idea of what the tourists will require when the time comes.

When I interviewed Geoff and Debbie for our Monologue they told me that they wanted to make the Roadhouse a community place, where you can pop in at any time for a cupper and say hello.

They have two daughters, one living in Geraldton and one living in England and they will be traveling to England next year for their daughter's wedding in July. They also have two grandchildren.

Geoff & Debbie have some great ideas for the roadhouse when they get settled in, so please make the effort to come in and make yourself known to them.

Geraldton to get specialist breast cancer nurse

11 December 2013

A second McGrath Foundation Breast Care Nurse will be based at Geraldton Hospital under an expansion of the McGrath Foundation program funded by the Australian Government.

Federal Member for Durack Melissa Price said the breast care nurse would take up the position in the first half of 2014.

Ms Price said the nurse would support an estimated 350 women diagnosed with breast cancer in the Durack electorate over the next four years.

"These nurses act as a patient advocate, they coordinate care not only for women with breast cancer, but also for their families and carers," Ms Price said.

"They work to ensure the physical, psychological and emotional needs of those affected by breast cancer are met.

"I welcome Health Minister Peter Dutton's announcement that a second specialist nurse will be based in Geraldton."

The Australian Government will be providing funding for an additional 13 nurses over the next four years on top of the 44 existing Commonwealth funded positions across Australia.

The McGrath Foundation funds another 42 BCN positions.

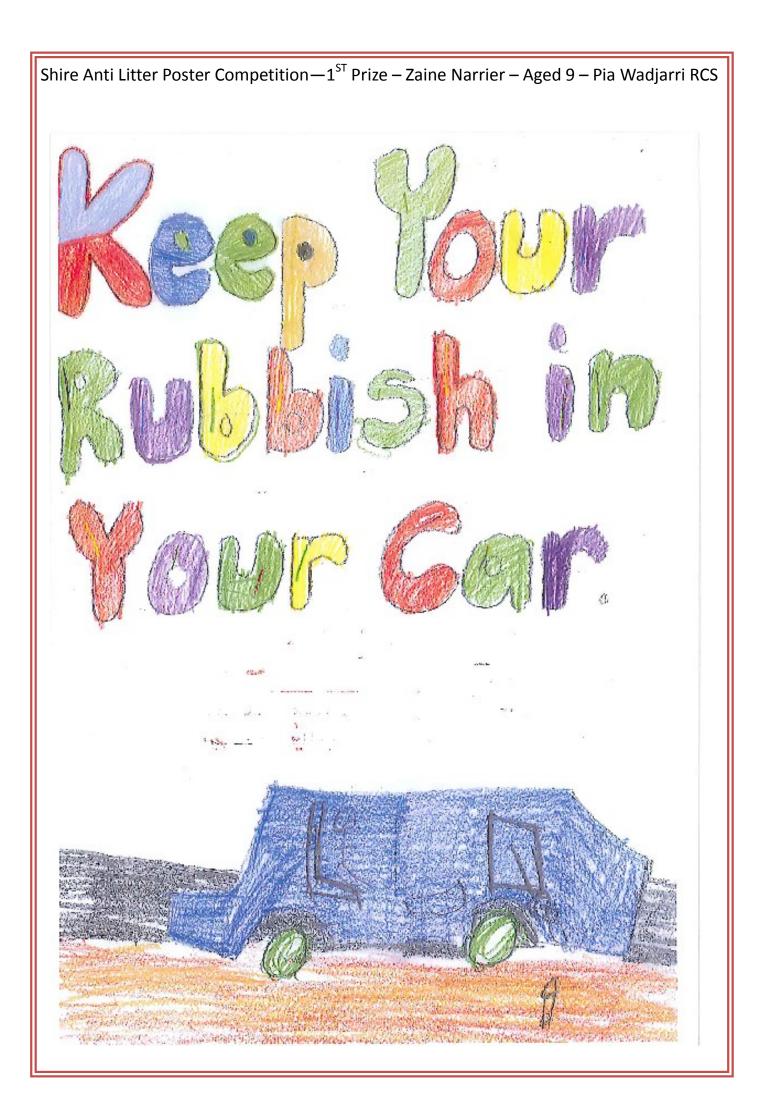

Ms Price said these nurses had already supported around 14,000 Australian families affected by breast cancer, and over the next four years would assist a similar number.

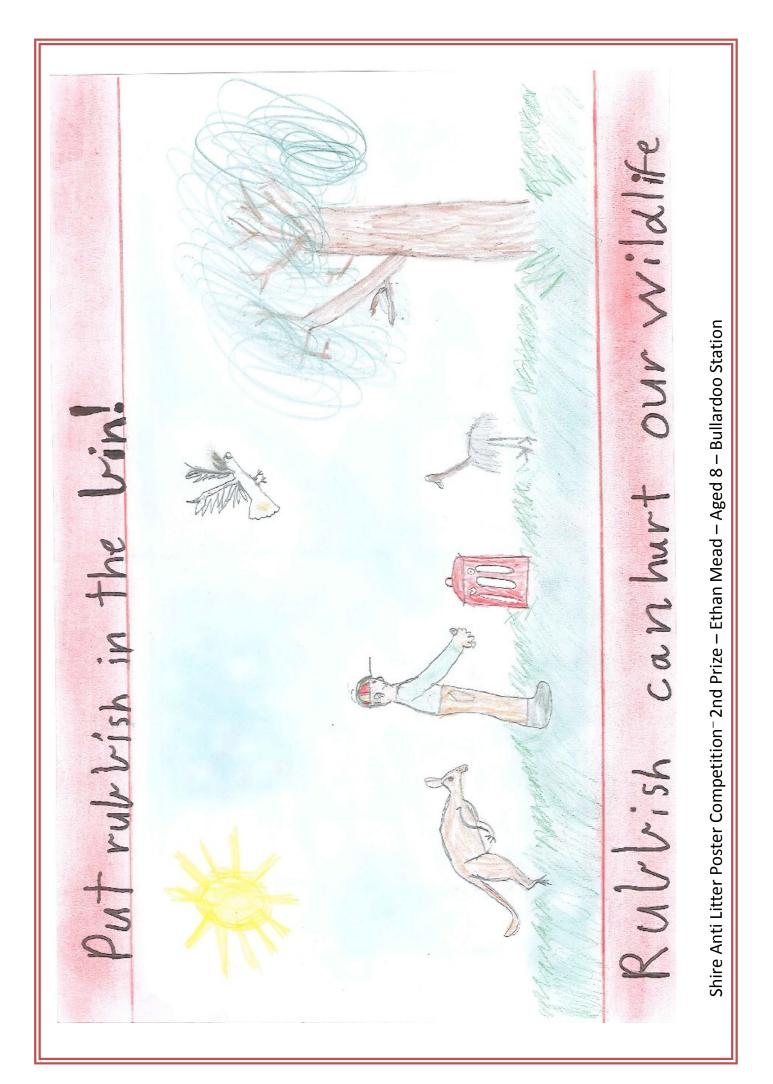

"Unfortunately breast cancer afflicts thousands of Australian women each year," Ms Price said.

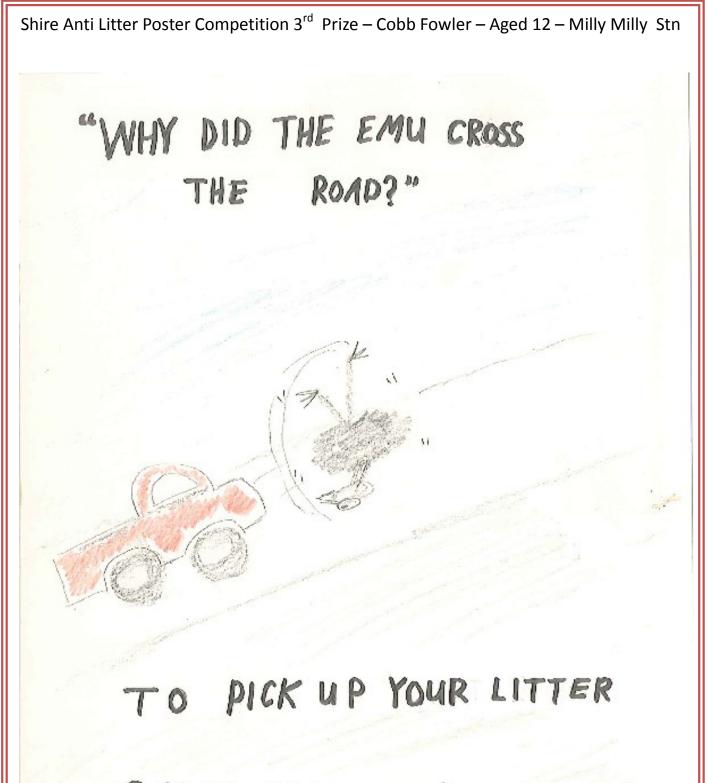

"I praise the McGrath Foundation for its work and I'm glad as a government we can support their efforts."

One sunny summer's day, Steve, a keen outdoor person and his excited 10 year old son, Ben, drove to Lake Mud Crab to catch mud crabs for Christmas. This time they went through Forrest Irwin instead of going over the river because Steve thought it would be a nice change.

While they were hunting for mud crabs, they found a weird looking footprint. They decided to follow the tracks.

The strange looking footprints disappeared into the dense green forest.

'Dad, have you ever seen these tracks before?' asked Ben.

Then the bushes in front of them rustled before his dad could reply. Out from behind the bushes crawled a possum with plastic wrapped around its foot. It could barely walk.

Ben didn't know what to think. He thought he was tracking an alien!

They were upset to see the beautiful marsupial in such distress. They decided to take the sad looking possum to the Park Ranger to get the plastic off its right front foot.

After that day the Park Ranger organised rubbish bins in the forest and lake area to avoid this happening again.

Smartphone App to improve emergency response

9 December 2013

Federal Member for Durack Melissa Price has welcomed the launch of the Emergency+ smartphone app by the Australian Government.

"When activated, the Emergency+ app provides users with their GPS reference which they can verbally provide to an emergency call taker to pinpoint their physical location," Ms Price said.

"The increase in mobile phone use by Australians means that more than 65 per cent of calls to Triple Zero are made from mobile phones.

"Sometimes mobile phone users are not aware of their physical location – making it difficult for emergency call operators to accurately and quickly dispatch emergency services.

This app solves this problem by providing callers with the ability to verbally provide emergency call operators with their location information as determined by their smartphone's GPS capability."

The app also contains the emergency contact numbers and a short explanation of when to call nonemergency numbers such as the Police Assistance Line (131 444) and the SES national number (132 500). This is to help members of the public dial the correct number and reduce the number of calls to the Triple Zero (000) service that should be directed to another service.

The Emergency+ app is available free of charge on iOS and Android devices through the Google Play store and the Apple App Store.

The development of the app was funded by the Australian Government through a National Emergency Management Project grant.
